Our Story

Pam and Blake are originally from Long Island, but Florida has always held a special place in their hearts. With family in the area, they've spent many years visiting the Space Coast and enjoying everything it has to offer.

Over time, those visits turned into something more. They fell in love not just with the beaches and sunshine, but with the laid-back lifestyle, the sense of community, and the endless things to do—from relaxing beach days to watching unforgettable rocket launches.

When they found The Ocean Pearl, it just felt right. The home's charm, its inviting coastal feel, and its location made it the perfect place to create a space where others could come and enjoy everything they love about Cape Canaveral.

The home's soft pale yellow exterior reflects that warm, welcoming feeling they wanted guests to experience from the moment they arrive.

Today, Pam and Blake are excited to share their home with you and hope your time here is filled with relaxation, fun, and memories you'll want to come back to again and again.
